

AVANTI UZOR

THE STORY

Avantii Uzor Avantii Uzor is a Nigerian Gospel recording artist, musician and praise/worship leader based in Atlanta, Georgia. As a child, Avantii found immense pleasure in listening to gospel music as she completed her chores. It soon blossomed into a passionate pastime of hers performing for family and friends in her community.

She started her professional music career in 2004. Her debut album titled Heart of Gratitude was released October, 2015 to rave reviews. Avantii hopes to sing the praises of her Lord and Savior to bless and guide others in their times of need and joy.

Avantii has worked with various international producers and feels privileged to have shared the stage and worked with leading gospel artists such as Flo, Sammie Okposo, Hope Davies, Ron Kenoly, Panam Pasi Paul, Donnie McClurkin, Kirk Franklin, Micah Stamply, Uche Agu, Tye Tribbet, Kenny Kore, Chavelle Franklin, Lara George, Frank Edwards and Nathaniel Bassegy to name a few.

As a philanthropist and worship leader she hopes that through her music and love for Jesus she is able to reach people and shine the light of this glorious gospel of Christ.
