

THE STORY

Avantii Uzor is a Gospel recording artist, Vocal director and praise/worship leader based in Atlanta, Georgia who hails originally from Nigeria. As a child, Avantii found immense pleasure in listening to gospel music as she completed her chores. It soon blossomed into a passionate pastime of her performing for family and friends in her community.

She started her professional music career in 2004. Her debut album titled Heart of Gratitude as well as other singles have rave reviews and airplays. Avantii hopes to sing the praises of her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ to bless and inspire others in their times of need and joy.

Avantii has worked with various international artists and producers and feels privileged to have shared the stage and worked with leading gospel artists such as JJ Harriston, Jonathan Nelson, Juanita Bynum, Sonnie Badu, Kirk Franklin, William Murphy, Maranda Curtis, Ron Kenoly, Donnie McClurkin, Micah Stamply, Uche Agu, Tye Tribbet, Chevelle Franklin, Frank Edwards and Nathaniel Bassey to name a few.

As a philanthropist and worship leader she hopes that through her music and love for Jesus she is able to reach people and shine the light of this glorious gospel of Christ.
